CITY CLERK
SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO

My wife Michele and I are raising our three children in San Juan Capistrano because we love its historic, hometown charm. Currently, I serve as a member of San Juan Capistrano's Trails and Equestrian Commission. Prior to that, I enjoyed supporting our local Little League as a past treasurer and board member.

Over the last twenty years, I have worked in financial services where I am currently a Senior Vice President with Wells Fargo Advisors. In addition, I have worked in state government where I served as both a legislative aid and staff director.

Looking forward, we must establish a healthy balance between open space needs, responsible development, and practical traffic solutions. I will work diligently with our council, city staff, and local experts on addressing our challenging water supply and cost issues. Additionally, we must reduce the amount of expensive lawsuits plaguing our town.

As your city councilman I will devote my financial expertise to ensure the efficient and conservative use of our taxpayer dollars within city hall. I will draw on my government experience to help unify my fellow council members, while maintaining a regular, open dialogue with you my friends and neighbors.
