Applications for City Commissions and Committees: Applications are now being accepted from residents interested in serving on the City Council’s advisory commissions and committees, including: Cultural Heritage Commission; Design Review Committee; Housing Advisory Committee; Parks, Recreation, Youth and Senior Services, Trails and Equestrian Commission; Planning Commission; and, Utilities Commission. Appointees will serve a term from April 2019 through March 2021. All appointees must reside in San Juan Capistrano, with the exception of two designated positions on the Cultural Heritage Commission. Application forms are available on the City’s website and at the Office of the City Clerk, 32400 Paseo Adelanto. Applications will be accepted until 4:30 p.m. on Friday, February 8. All questions regarding the committees and commissions or the application process should be directed to the Office of the City Clerk at (949) 493-1171.

Applications for Youth Advisory Board: Applications are also being accepted for fifteen youth member vacancies on the Youth Advisory Board. The Board serves as a liaison between the City’s youth and the City Council by submitting recommendations for special events, programs, and fundraising events. Appointees will serve a term from June 2019 through May 2020. Additional information and applications are available on the City’s website or at the Office of the City Clerk. Applications will be accepted until 4:30 p.m. on Friday, February 8. For more information, please call (949) 493-1171.

2019 Point in Time Count: The County of Orange is seeking volunteers to assist with the 2019 Point in Time count taking place on Wednesday, January 23, and Thursday, January 24. The Point in Time is a biennial count of people experiencing homelessness at a given point in time in Orange County. The count provides vital information that helps the County better understand homelessness in the community and guides the way the County and its partners respond to this complex social issue. Please see the attached flyer for a list of volunteer positions, the volunteer application and training center locations.

Sound the Alarm in San Juan Capistrano: The American Red Cross in partnership with the Orange County Fire Authority invites residents to participate in Sound the Alarm, a home fire safety and smoke alarm installation event taking place in San Juan Capistrano on Saturday, January 19, from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. As a Sound the Alarm volunteer, you will go door-to-door (in small teams) in a targeted neighborhood to inform residents that free smoke alarm installation is available to them. You will be provided with talking points and information sheets to leave with residents. CLICK HERE for a list of volunteer assignments and the application form.
Sandbags Available at City Hall: As a courtesy to residents, the City provides empty sandbags free-of-charge for flood control purposes. San Juan Capistrano residents can pick-up ten empty sandbags at City Hall, located at 32400 Paseo Adelanto, during regular business hours. Additionally, the Orange County Fire Authority provides empty sandbags at Fire Station 7, located at 31865 Del Obispo Street. Residents can fill their own bags using the sand pile located in the Library parking lot at 31495 El Camino Real. Residents can also purchase filled sandbags at a variety of suppliers. Please see attached suppliers list for additional information. Residents are encouraged to contact the suppliers first to confirm availability. For more details regarding sandbags and sand locations, please see the attached flyer or contact Public Works at (949) 443-6352.

American Red Cross Blood Drive: The City of San Juan Capistrano and the American Red Cross are hosting a blood drive on Tuesday, January 29, from 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. at the San Juan Capistrano Community Center, located at 25925 Camino Del Avion. To make an appointment, please visit www.redcrossblood.org and enter sponsor code CityofSJC, or contact Lindsey Stigall, Management Analyst, at (949) 443-6317. Please see the attached flyer for additional information on the American Red Cross RapidPass program, a new tool that allows blood donors to help save lives in less time.

Free Tax Preparation for Seniors: Appointments are available every Tuesday, from February 5 through April 9, for free tax preparation for seniors. The appointments are held at the San Juan Capistrano Community Center between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Trained volunteer tax preparers provided by the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) will help seniors file their returns online. To schedule an appointment, please call the Community Center at (949) 493-5911.

Art & Creativity for Healing: The Art & Creativity for Healing program is a unique support group that offers seniors a space to share their personal experience with loss or grief through art. The program is offered every Monday at the Community Center from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Workshops are offered at no cost and are limited to ten participants in an effort to provide a small group setting. To register, please contact the Community Center at (949) 493-5911.
